:FOR WHOM

- musicians in professional orchestras
- singers in radio choirs
- members of big bands
- freelancers
- music college lecturers and students

:ABOUT UNISONO

unisono represents the interests of musicians in professional orchestras, radio choirs, big bands and freelancers, as well as lecturers and students at music colleges.

As a trade union, we are committed to fair working conditions and fair pay. With an organizational level of over 90 percent, we are a strong collective bargaining partner.

We are committed to the preservation and further development of our globally unique orchestral and musical landscape.

:WE STAND FOR

- preserving and furthering the development of professional orchestras, radio choirs & radio big bands in Germany
- the recognition of the German orchestra and theater landscape as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity
- musicians' health
- freedom of the arts
- sustainable public funding of the cultural sector
- music education and attracting new audiences
- better working conditions and fair pay for musicians

unisono encourages and supports its members in shaping important social debates from the perspective of musicians.
